

Presentation Skills.

Presentation Excellence.

Overview.

The rogenSi Presentation Excellence represents a skills approach to presenting. Incorporating tools and strategies regarding how to structure and develop effective presentations it is ideal for presenters who wish to become even more creative and persuasive. It uses a combination of proven rogenSi methodologies and acting techniques to achieve exceptional presentation performance while maximising individual presenter strengths and personality.

Key components.

- Structuring motivational communications
- Advanced persuasive language
- Impromptu and prepared presentations
- Freeing the natural voice
- Creating atmosphere through movement
- Storytelling
- Creative thinking
- Personal coaching exercises

Challenges addressed.

- High-stakes presentations
- Keynote addresses
- Public speaking engagements and presentations requiring creativity
- Inspiring and compelling audiences
- Presenting a professional image

Outcomes.

- Learn how to motivate their listeners to a specific course of action
- Capture the interest of the audience through the use of creative anecdotes
- Receive personal coaching and feedback to hone capabilities as a presenter to a new level of excellence
- Learn to unmask the creative side of making a presentation

Duration.

2 days.